

Jonathan Charles' luxurious transitional collection gets a makeover!

New vibrant Faux Shagreen look 2014

May 2014 – Unveiled at Spring High Point Market, the premier furniture show in the United States, Jonathan Charles' new transitional collection focuses on a vibrant colourful faux shagreen look – teal faux shagreen contrasts beautifully with antique brass legs and handle pulls, handmade in Jonathan Charles' in-house foundry. The interior of the drawers are lined with natural oak. This collection is inspired by French Art Deco designs of 1930's and truly is the most eye-catching transitional collection to date. Furthermore colours will be offered in fall. Stay tuned and be excited!
