Jonathan Charles pampers your pup with playful pet beds.

July 2014 – High Point, NC – In keeping with today's increasing designer pet furnishings, Jonathan Charles debuts a pet bed collection inspired by originals circa 1760's. Catering to the ultimate pampered pooch, the occasional furniture manufacturer employs Old World craftsmanship techniques to create finely carved details worthy of their antiques originals.

Replete with brass detailing, handsome carving, and rich walnut and mahogany veneers, the collection comes in four different sizes: small, medium, large, and extra large. Gone are the days of mismatched pet beds that attract unwanted attention; now your canine can sleep peacefully in a bed that also complements your existing interior decor.

Based on an original circa 1760, the Walnut Wood Dog Bed is inspired by an Irish oval peat bucket, complete with distressed planked sides and three patinated brass studded bands stretching all the way around.
